Celebrate 50 years of Psychology in Arizona!

Friday, February 27th
Old Pueblo Grille (60 N. Alvernon Way)
5:30 - 7:30pm

SAPA invites you to join us in celebrating 50 years of the profession of psychology in Arizona! Following the Board of Psychologist Examiners meeting in Tucson (see information on the board meeting below), ALL psychologists in Southern Arizona, SAPA members and non-members, are welcome to attend a free reception at the Old Pueblo Grille patio. Appetizers will be provided, and a cash bar will be available. The reception is hosted by SAPA, and is not affiliated with the Arizona Board of Psychologist Examiners.

Please RSVP by Monday 02/23. Share this invitation with colleagues!
To RSVP, click here.

SAPA Announcements

New "SAPA Classifieds"

If you would like to make a practice announcement, such as a new location, a new practice, a new service offered (e.g., group therapy), and other items of interest to your colleagues, please send your announcement to sapaweb@gmail.com. We are creating a new space on our website, tentatively named "SAPA classifieds" for this type of announcement. You can check it out here.

Judges Needed for the SARSEF Science Fair

You are invited to become a judge at this year's SARSEF science fair. There are many submissions in the area of behavioral science that need expert judges. SAPA also awards three prizes to excellent projects, and we need more volunteers to help with this selection. Judging will take place Tuesday March 10th, from 7:30am-12:30pm for Elementary and Middle School, and 7:30am-4:00pm for High School. To review categories, qualifications, visit SARSEF.org. SAPA graduate student members are also encouraged to participate.

You must register online to judge at sarsef.org, and please contact Alan Goldberg at rehabpsy@aol.com if you are willing to volunteer.

Other Events

SAPA neither sponsors nor endorses the following events, but provides the information as a service to our members.

REQUEST FOR SPEAKERS

Diverse Voices in Prevention Conference (May 5 & 6)

The Diverse Voices in Prevention subcommittee is looking for presentations for the 8th Annual DVIP Conference. The theme this year is "We are Many, We are One." It will take place at the Pima Community College downtown campus, May 5th and 6th, 2015.

This is an opportunity for presenters to share their knowledge and experience in preventing substance abuse in different cultures than attendees can put to practical use at their job or in the communities they serve. We are looking for dynamic and engaging speakers to present on one of these days. All prevention providers, including practitioners, researchers, and others are greatly encouraged to submit proposals.

Applications are due by March 13th, 2015. You can access the presenter application here.

There are also sponsorship opportunities! Please feel free to forward to your contacts. If you have any further questions, please contact Shaundra Higgins at 205-4783 or shiggins@pasaderanetwork.org.
