You are invited to become a judge at this year's SARSEF science fair. There are many submissions in the area of behavioral science. There are many submissions in the area of behavioral science that need expert judges. SAPA also awards three prizes to excellent projects, and we need more volunteers to help with this selection. Judging will take place Tuesday March 10th, from 7:30am-12:30pm for Elementary and Middle School, and 7:30am-4:00pm for High School. To review categories, qualifications, visit SARSEF.org. SAPA graduate student members are also encouraged to participate.

You must register online to judge at sarsef.org, and please contact Alan Goldberg at rehabpsy@aol.com if you are willing to volunteer.

REQUEST FOR SPEAKERS
Diverse Voices in Prevention Conference
(May 5 & 6)

The Diverse Voices in Prevention subcommittee is looking for presentations for the 8th Annual DVIP Conference. The theme this year is "We are Many, We are One." It will take place at the Pima Community College downtown campus, May 5th and 6th, 2015.

This is an opportunity for presenters to share their knowledge and experience in preventing substance abuse in different cultures than attendees can put to practical use at their job or in the communities they serve. We are looking for dynamic and engaging speakers to present on one of these days. All prevention providers, including practitioners, researchers, and others are greatly encouraged to submit proposals.

Applications are due by March 13th, 2015. You can access the presenter application here.

There are also sponsorship opportunities! Please feel free to forward to your contacts. If you have any further questions, please contact Shaundra Higgins at 205-4783 or shiggins@pasaderanetwork.org.
