In an effort to expand the board, I would be most grateful for the opportunity to speak with someone from SAPA about how we might recruit a local psychologist with an interest in mentorship to our group.

I may be reached at 520-400-4813. Thank you for your consideration.

Best,
Eric Nielsen

Business & Ethics Consultation Group

Hi Everyone,

I wanted to gauge people's interest in joining a business and ethics consultation group that would meet once per month. I imagine this becoming a peer-led group that I would coordinate over a casual dinner at a restaurant. The meeting would be free minus the cost of your own dinner.

Some of the topics discussed would include:

- starting/building a private practice
- incorporating for liability protection
- marketing online
- website development
- billing pragmatics and ethics
- professional ethics
- strategic planning
- focusing your niche.

Please let me know if this group is something of interest and we can begin planning our first meeting.

Thanks and I look forward to your feedback,

Yoendry Torres, Psy.D.

Improving Care for Veterans Facing Illness and Death

Tuesday, August 25 3:PM - 6:00PM

Tucson Medical Center Marshall Conference Center

(5301 E. Grant Rd.)

The Hospice Foundation of America's Living with Grief program, Improving Care for Veterans Facing Illness and Death, will assist end-of-life care provider organizations and health and human service professionals in enhancing their sensitivities and understanding of veterans and to provide professionals with new interventions to better serve dying veterans and their families. Attention is placed on veteran generations now aging and most likely to be seen in end-of-life care (WWII, Korean War, Vietnam). The program also looks organizationally at military benefits and intersections with VA systems and will explore the traditions and sensitivities of grieving families and resources that can assist them.

This is a free program. CE credits are available ($15 processing fee per certificate) for nurses, social workers, counselors, funeral directors, clergy, nursing home administrators, and more. A "Certificate of Attendance" will be provided at no cost.

Moderator: Frank Sesno, Director of the School of Media and Public Affairs at the George Washington University

Featured Panelists: Scott T. Shreve, DO; Deborah Grassman ARNP; Jenneth Doka, PhD, MDiv; Paul Tshuci, MA, EdS, LPC; Ryan Weller, MSW, LCSW.

Review Committee: Pam Kushner, MA, MD, FAAFP

Required 15-minute local discussion led by local hospice volunteers.

Class on Trauma and DID

Hi Everyone,

I'm a psychologist whose specialty is Trauma and DID. I'm on the faculty of the International Society for the Study of Trauma and Dissociation (ISSTD). Given that there is still so much skepticism about this diagnosis, before I retire I would like to offer another educational opportunity in this area of psychotherapy.

To this end, I will be starting a ISSTD class on October 5th which will meet evenings once a month for 8 months and will provide 20 CEU's. Please contact me by phone (323-2670) or email (seretarobinson@yahoo.com) for more information, if you are interested. At that time I can tell you how to register for the class. Enrollment will be limited to 8 students.

Sincerely,

Sereta Robinson, Ph.D.

Developing and Expanding your Behavioral Sleep Medicine Practice: A Case-Based Approach

October 17-18

AASM National Office - Darien, Illinois

The Society for Behavioral sleep Medicine announces their Fall Course Developing and Expanding your BSM Practice: A Case-Based approach. This course is being chaired by Tucson psychologist and professor Patricia Haynes, PhD, CBSM.

This one-and-a-half-day course will examine state-of-the-art assessment and treatment strategies in behavioral sleep medicine through lectures incorporating a case-based approach. Sessions will focus on managing common sleep disorders with an emphasis on patient-centered care. Discussion will focus on state-of-the-art management strategies for clinicians to employ in their behavioral sleep medicine practice.
