CONGRATULATIONS TO DR. MARTA KETCHEL!

SAPA wishes to congratulate Dr. Marta Ketchel on receiving this year's Peter Attarian Award for Outstanding Contributions to the Field of Psychology in Southern Arizona.

Dr. Ketchel's psychology career was launched while in college at Stanford in the 60's. She was the first psychology intern at the College of Medicine under Marty Levy, Gene Evans, and Jim Gumina, and then went to work at So. Az. Mental Health Center before moving to Houston. She was an Assistant Professor at Baylor College of Medicine before returning to Tucson and joining a private practice.

Dr. Ketchel has been active in both AzPA and SAPA, chairing three conventions for AzPA and serving on many committees. As President of SAPA in '90-'91, she started the Round Up Dues campaign and the Back to School CE event. She served for 7 years as the Parent representative on University High School's Site-Based Executive Committee, initiating an AP Psychology class. She also served for 10 years on the Congregation Anshei Israel Board of Trustees and 4 years on the Jewish

JOB OPENINGS

Sunlight Center for Change Contract Clinician for Individual Therapy

Sunlight Center for Change is actively looking for a licensed psychologist or Master's level clinician to join our team as a contract clinician for individual therapy.

Preference given to clinicians who have already been on insurance panels, however assistance will be given in this area if needed. Thursday, Friday, and weekend office space is mainly what is available, but other times may be negotiated. Our practice generally attracts child, adolescent, and adult, OCD, trauma, and court-involved divorce cases. Assessments of many varieties are also conducted. Weekly Team Meeting provides case staffing and support. Other specializations that are complimentary to our established services will be considered.

For more information on SCC, please visit our website at www.SunlightCenterForChange.com.

For more information or to submit a resume for the position, please contact Holly Joubert at SunlightCenterHolly@gmail.com.

Let's Take a Hike!

Dear SAPA members,

I wanted to see if anyone would be interested in attending a regular monthly hike with other fellow psychologists and their families/friends. I want to schedule this morning (7am-9ish) hike on the second Saturday of the month. If you are interested, please join me at Sabino Canyon on November 14 at 7am. We can meet under the ramada in the front by the parking lot. Please feel free to bring your partner and/or kids.

You can sign up here. Hope to see you then.

Other Events

SAPA neither sponsors nor endorses the following events, but provides the information as a service to our members.

COMPLICATED PAIN RECOVERY COACH TRAINING WORKSHOP

Presenter: Jerry Lerner, MD
Date: November 7 & 8 (9:00 - 4:30)
Location: Homewood Suites by Hilton (4250 N. Campbell Ave.)
Presented by: Complicated Pain Recovery (TM) and Sierra Tucson
CEs: 11
Cost: $500 ($250 discount when purchasing 5 tickets or more)

This workshop delves into the true nature of un-resolving pain, as well as explains the four major complicating factors (bio-mechanical stress, hyper-sensitization, metabolic inflammation, and inertial forces) and how they interact to inhibit natural healing. Attendees will learn how to effectively assess their clients, educate them regarding the nature of their pain, coach them toward an integrated program of pain recovery, and identify when additional outside expertise is required.

Participants who successfully complete this workshop will be identified as a Certified Complicated Pain Recovery™ Coach.

ELI W. LANE MEMORIAL MASTER WORKSHOP
THE IMPACT OF AFFECT AND TRAUMA ON DEVELOPMENT: IMPLICATIONS FOR TREATMENT

Presenter: Paul C. Holinger, MD, MPH
Date: November 7, 2015, 9:00am - 4:00pm

Location: Hacienda del Sol Guest Ranch Resort
Presented by: Southwest Psychoanalytic Society, Arizona Center for Psychoanalytic Studies, University of Arizona Department of Psychiatry
CEs: 5.75
Cost: SPS Members $160, Non-Members $175, Students $55-60

Dr. Paul C. Hollinger will focus on the importance of affect as a foundation for understanding how early environmental trauma can disrupt development. The clinical implications of these ideas for psychoanalytic and psychotherapeutic work with children, adolescents, and adults will be explored. He will discuss affect theory particularly from the perspectives of Darwin, Tomkins, Ekman, Stern, and others. These ideas will be integrated with clinical work of Winnicott, Kohut and relationists, as well as classical psychoanalytic concepts.

The morning sessions will explore affect theory and primary affects, early environmental trauma, and adult and adolescent cases. The afternoon sessions will examine affect theory and developmental disruptions in relation to child/adolescent psychoanalytic work and outcome. we will also discuss the implications of affect theory in areas such as physical punishment, early verbalization of affect in parenting, and education.
