IT'S ELECTIONS TIME!

You should have received an email with a link to cast your vote for the open positions in SAPA's Board. Please take a minute to vote! If you have not received the email, or need assistance, please contact SAPA Admin at sapaweb@gmail.com.

"DARK SIDE OF THE FULL MOON" SCREENING

The Tucson Postpartum Depression Coalition and SAPA will be co-hosting a screening of the acclaimed film "Dark Side of the Full Moon" on Monday, December 7, from 6 to 9pm at The Loft Cinema. The screening will be followed by a moderated panel discussion in which community professionals and a mom-survivor will answer questions about the film and the experience working with (or being part of) this population in Southern Arizona. 1 CE credit will be available for psychologists who sign in, attend the entire presentation, and complete the evaluation questionnaire.

For more information and to register, click here. Registration deadline is 12/7/15.

JCC'S ELDER REHAB PROGRAM FOR MEMORY-IMPAIRED HAS OPENINGS

The Tucson Jewish Community Center announced that its physical fitness and cognitive stimulation program for memory-impaired older adults had a successful first year and is actively recruiting participants for its 2016 spring semester program. Twenty-three seniors with a variety of memory disorders are currently enrolled and openings for 7 or 8 new participants are anticipated. Screening of new applicants will take place in November and December. The program will start on or about January 25 and run for 10-12 weeks.

SEEKING OFFICE SPACE

Hello Everyone,

I am grateful to be a part of the SAPA community. I look forward to meeting many of you in the coming months and years. My name is Autumn - and I recently finished my PhD in clinical psychology at U of A and got licensed as a clinical psychologist in the state of Arizona.

I am looking to find private practice office space to rent full time

LET'S TAKE A HIKE!

Dear SAPA members,

I wanted to see if anyone would be interested in attending a regular monthly hike with other fellow psychologists and their families/friends. I want to schedule this morning (7am-9ish) hike on the second Saturday of the month. If you are interested, please join me at Sabino Canyon on November 14 at 7am. We can meet under the ramada in the front by the parking lot. Please feel free to bring your partner and/or kids.

You can sign up here. Hope to see you then.

Yoendry Torres, PsyD

Upcoming SAPA Events

INTEGRATED CARE AND PSYCHOLOGY/MENTAL HEALTH COLLABORATING IN A BEHAVIORAL HEALTH MODE

Presenter: Cary Jordan, Ph.D.
Presented by: The University of Arizona Student Affiliates in School Psychology and SAPA's School Psychology Committee
Date: Thursday November 19
Time: 6:00 - 7:30 PM
Location: University of Arizona Social Sciences Room 222 (1145 E. South Campus Drive)
Cost: SAPA/AASP members: $10. Non-members $15. Students: free. CEs: 1.5

Integrated care will continue to be a priority in healthcare and behavioral health is an integral piece. Psychologists are engaging in new or expanded roles in medicine as mandates encourage comprehensive health care and reduced hospital admissions. Many psychologists are not trained in medical setting interventions and this presentation is aimed at filling in gaps in training and knowledge related to providing mental health/behavioral health services within a medical setting.

Registration deadline is Wednesday, November 18. For more details, click here. To register, click here.

CE LUNCHEON
THE TRANSFORMATIONAL PROCESS
HOW PEOPLE CHANGE AND HOW WE CAN ASSIST THEM

Presenter: Ann Marie Chiasson, MD, MPH
Date: Tuesday November 17, 2015
Time: 12:00 - 1:30 PM
Location: Child & Family Resources (2800 E. Broadway Blvd.)

This presentation will discuss different models of behavior change from a multi-cultural perspective, including current psychological methods and narrative medicine, as well as traditional rituals and practices. We will explore the importance of the input from the autonomic nervous system in transformation. Finally, we will discuss ways to incorporate these tools to assist clients with change through case presentations.

Registration deadline is Thursday, November 12. To register, click here.
